- Full shot of me in an outfit of a brown striped long-sleeve button-down shirt with the sleeves rolled up, white pants, and white shoes. I'll be wearing sunglasses and a watch, holding a phone in one hand. The setting is outdoors, on a street with buildings and cars in the background, under bright daylight. I'll be leaning against a black car. I'll have one leg crossed over the other, with my arms relaxed. The lighting is natural and bright, as if taken on a sunny day

- A cinematic portrait of myself, keeping my exact face unchanged. I am standing outdoors next to a classic green Alfa Romeo car, leaning casually against the front hood. My left hand rests firmly on the car near the emblem, while my right hand is hooked into my pocket. My posture is relaxed, with my torso turned slightly toward the camera but my gaze directed confidently to the side, away from the lens, giving a thoughtful and self-assured expression. I am wearing a light olive-green button-up shirt with the sleeves rolled up to the elbows, the top buttons undone to reveal part of my chest. The shirt fabric is lightweight, slightly wrinkled, and casual. I pair it with brown trousers and a leather belt, which adds to the vintage, timeless aesthetic. The scene is set in warm natural evening light, casting golden tones across my skin and clothing, enhancing the atmosphere of late summer or early autumn. Behind me, the background is softly blurred, with hints of an open landscape and mountains in the distance. The photo is shot at eye level, using an 85mm portrait lens effect, creating shallow depth of field and cinematic focus on me and the car emblem while softly fading the horizon. The overall mood is nostalgic, elegant, and cinematic. Use the 100% same face as I uploaded.
- A portrait of me leaning casually against a warm beige wall, softly lit by natural sunlight casting strong angular shadows. My body is slightly turned toward the wall, while my head is gently tilted downward as I look off to the side with a calm, thoughtful expression. My right arm rests loosely by my side, while my left hand is slipped casually into my trouser pocket, creating a relaxed and effortless posture. I am wearing a light cream-colored linen shirt with a deep open neckline, unbuttoned down the chest, and the sleeves rolled up to just below the elbows. The shirt fabric is airy and textured, giving a natural, summery vibe. I am also wearing matching light linen trousers with a loose, comfortable fit, held by a brown woven belt with a metallic buckle. The outfit has a Mediterranean, timeless elegance, combining casual sophistication with relaxed charm. The shot is captured at eye-level, using a portrait lens around 85mm, producing shallow depth of field and emphasizing the interplay of light and shadow on my clothing and the wall behind me. The overall mood is warm, cinematic, and intimate, with golden sunlight enhancing the textures and earthy tones of the scene. Use the 100% same face as I uploaded

- A close-up portrait of me standing in front of a mirror, with my reflection visible at the right edge of the frame. My body is turned slightly sideways toward the mirror, while my face is directed toward the camera, giving an intense and captivating gaze. My right arm is raised above my head, bent at the elbow, with my hand resting casually out of frame, creating a dynamic diagonal line. My left side is closer to the camera, while the reflection in the mirror shows the profile of my face and beard. I am wearing a dark denim shirt, slightly unbuttoned at the chest, revealing part of my collarbone and upper chest, adding a relaxed yet confident vibe. The shirt fabric is textured and matte, with visible seams and folds. My hair is styled in a voluminous, slightly messy way, and I have light stubble that enhances a rugged but refined look. The camera captures me at eye-level, with a portrait lens around 85mm, producing shallow depth of field that blurs the reflection slightly while keeping my direct gaze sharply in focus. The lighting is soft and moody, coming from the front and side, creating subtle shadows that emphasize my facial features and add depth to the scene. The overall mood is intimate, cinematic, and stylish, highlighting both my expression and the dual perspective through the mirror.
- A cinematic street-style portrait of myself, keeping my exact face unchanged. I am walking forward with a confident posture, my body slightly turned as sunlight highlights one side of me. My left hand is holding a light cream pinstriped blazer casually slung over my shoulder, with my arm bent at the elbow. My right hand rests on my hip, tucked into the waistband of my trousers in a relaxed, self-assured gesture. My gaze is directed slightly to the side, away from the camera, with a thoughtful, composed expression. I am wearing a textured short-sleeve knit polo shirt in a muted beige tone with dark trim along the collar and sleeves. The shirt is tucked into high-waisted cream trousers with thin vertical pinstripes, tailored and elegant. Around my wrist is a subtle bracelet, adding a refined accessory to the look. The blazer I carry matches the trousers, creating a cohesive and sophisticated outfit. The lighting is strong and directional, with a sharp contrast of sunlight and shadow, giving the image a dramatic, high-fashion aesthetic. The photo is taken at eye level with an 85mm portrait lens effect, producing shallow depth of field and cinematic focus on me while the background softly fades into darkness. The mood is stylish, urban, and timeless. Use the 100% same face as I uploaded.
- A cinematic portrait of myself, keeping my exact face unchanged. I am sitting at a wooden table, leaning slightly forward with my right forearm resting on the table. My right hand is relaxed and placed over a dark ceramic mug, fingers long and slightly bent, with a bold silver rectangular ring on my ring finger. My left arm is bent and casually rests on the table. I wear a dark, slightly loose long-sleeve henley shirt with the top buttons undone, revealing part of my chest and a thin chain necklace. My facial hair is light stubble. My gaze is directed to the side, away from the camera, giving a thoughtful and slightly mysterious expression. The background is dark and minimalist, with soft moody lighting highlighting the texture of my hair and face, creating strong contrast and depth. The photo is taken at eye level, with a shallow depth of field and an 85mm portrait lens effect, emphasizing sharp focus on my face and upper body while keeping the background blurred. The overall color grading is muted and cinematic, with cool tones and soft shadows. Use the 100% same face as I uploaded.

- A cinematic portrait of me standing by a wooden doorway, leaning slightly against the frame in a relaxed pose. My body is angled to the side, while my head is turned outward as I gaze into the distance with a calm, confident, and thoughtful expression. Both of my hands are positioned at my waistline, one hand adjusting the cuff of my white dress shirt in a subtle, elegant gesture. I am wearing a tailored black suit jacket with structured shoulders, paired with a crisp white shirt with the top button undone, giving a refined yet relaxed look. A loosely knotted black tie hangs naturally, complementing the formal outfit. The fabric of the suit is matte and sharply cut, emphasizing sophistication and elegance. Behind me, the background is dark and shadowy, with warm, subtle light adding depth and creating a cinematic contrast. The shot is captured at eye-level with a portrait focal length around 85mm, producing a shallow depth of field that keeps me in sharp focus while softly blurring the background. The directional lighting casts gentle shadows across my face and suit, enhancing textures and giving the scene a moody, stylish, and cinematic atmosphere. Use the 100% same face as I uploaded.
- A monochrome portrait of me sitting in a relaxed pose against a plain background. My body is angled slightly forward, with my right arm bent upward so that my hand rests casually on my forehead, fingers framing the side of my face in a natural gesture. My left arm rests lower, close to my body. I am looking directly at the camera with a calm but slightly intense expression, lips slightly parted, giving the image a moody and introspective feeling. I am wearing a loose-fitting white T-shirt, slightly wrinkled, with small distressed details visible on the fabric near the chest area. The shirt drapes naturally across my torso and shoulders. I am also wearing dark denim jeans, with one knee bent upward and partly visible in the frame. The shot is taken at eye-level, using a portrait focal length around 85mm, which creates a shallow depth of field and keeps the background softly blurred. The black-and-white tones emphasize contrast, shadows, and textures, highlighting the casual outfit, the relaxed but expressive pose, and the overall moody, editorial style of the image. Use the 100 % same face as I uploaded.

- A full-body portrait of me standing outdoors on a rooftop terrace with a blurred city skyline in the background. I am standing slightly sideways in the frame, with my body turned at a subtle angle, while keeping my legs apart in a confident stance. Both of my hands are casually resting inside the side pockets of my bomber jacket. I am wearing a light beige bomber jacket with a subtle sheen, slightly oversized, layered over a white hoodie with the hood resting loosely on my back. Underneath, the hoodie's front pocket is visible. I am also wearing relaxed-fit, light grey jogger sweatpants with elastic cuffs at the ankles. On my feet are clean white sneakers with chunky soles. My head is facing forward, and I am looking directly toward the camera with a calm, confident expression. My hair is styled in a natural, tousled way. The camera captures me from a low angle shot, making me appear taller and more dominant in the frame. The perspective is enhanced with a portrait lens around 50mm, creating a natural look with shallow depth of field that softly blurs the background. The lighting is soft and diffused, evoking a calm, urban, streetwear atmosphere. Use the 100% same face as o uploaded.
- A portrait of me standing outdoors in a mountainous landscape with misty clouds in the background. I am standing slightly at an angle, with my body turned subtly to the side while my face remains directed toward the camera, giving a strong and calm presence. Both of my hands are casually resting inside the front pockets of my pants. My legs are relaxed and slightly apart, though not fully visible in the frame. I am wearing a loose, textured knit sweater in earthy brown, with long sleeves that extend to my wrists, slightly wrinkled around the elbows. The sweater has a round crew neckline. I am also wearing brown casual trousers, partially visible, with a relaxed fit that complements the natural, outdoors setting. My facial expression is neutral yet confident, as I look directly toward the camera. The image is captured from a low angle shot, making me appear taller and more dominant in the frame. The camera uses a portrait focal length around 85mm, giving a natural perspective with shallow depth of field. The lighting is soft and diffused, blending with the cloudy, moody atmosphere of the mountains behind me, enhancing the earthy and natural tones of the outfit and scenery.
